

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Executive Summary	i
I. Introduction and Methodology	1
II. Past, Actual and Potential Conflicts	3
A. General Overview of Conflicts in the Period 1989-2001.....	3
B. Main Trends and Potential Conflicts	22
II. Regional Dimensions of Conflict Vulnerability	25
A. Regional Economy Condition and Protest Behavior	25
B. Town Size and Protest Behavior	26
C. International and Regional Conflicts	33
III. At-Risk Populations and Key Conflict Players	35
A. Socially Disadvantaged At-Risk Groups	35
B. Key Conflict Players	45
IV. Root Causes and Immediate Factors	53
A. Predisposing and Mitigating Structural Conditions	54
1. Economic Conflict	54
a. Rising Imbalance in Socio-Economic Conditions
b. Increasing Income Inequalities
c. Unemployment
2. Public Sector and Social Welfare	59
a. Shrinking Social Safety Net
b. Declining Quality of and Access to Health Care
3. Socio-Cultural Conflict	63
a. Demographic Developments
b. Considerations of Identity and Culture
c. Potential Contributions to Identity-Based Conflict
4. Politically-Based Conflict	71

5. Main Trends and Conclusions	73
B. Conflict Enabling or Accommodating Factors	74
1. Government Policies Aggravating conflict	75
a. Economic policy
b. Financial management
c. Public and Social Sector
d. Corruption
2. Lack of Capacity for Conflict Management	81
a. Exclusive, Non-Participatory Government
b. Weak Civil Society
c. Governance
3. Main Trends and Conclusions	92
V. Factors that Prevented Outbreak of Conflict in Bulgaria to date	94
VI. Proposed Monitoring Indicators	98